

Obama Announces "Truth Squad" To Counter Clintons

First Posted: 01-22-08 11:19 AM | Updated: 03-28-08 02:45 AM

I Like ItI Don't Like It

Read More: 2008 Election, Barack Obama, Barack Obama 2008, Barack Obama Hillary Clinton, Bill Clinton, Bill Clinton Barack Obama, Democratic Presidential Candidate, Democratic Primary, Obama, South Carolina, South Carolina Primary, South Carolina Truth Squad, Tom Daschle, Politics News

MSNBC News:

The Obama campaign held a conference call to announce the South Carolina Truth Squad "to respond forcefully" to "the incredible distortions that are coming from the Clinton campaign in particular and our desire to set the record straight," said former Sen. Tom Daschle, an Obama supporter, from Greenville, S.C., where Obama is expected to speak at Furman College later today.

Daschle cited that "Bill Clinton this morning again" was distorting Obama's record on the war and what Obama had said about Republicans. "Over and over again," Daschle said, "we find the Clinton campaign has made an overt effort to distort his [Obama's] record."

Read the whole story: MSNBC News

PHOTO GALLERIES

- BlackBerry Torch 9800: Tour The New Features Added By RIM \(PHOTOS, VIDEO, POLL\)